as she brings to Fort Lauderdale
Equine Assisted Psychotherapy (EAP)
and Equine-Assisted Learning (EAL)

March 21- 23, 2014

Greg Kersten, Founder of Equine Assisted Psychotherapy, will be certifying professionals in EAP and EAL at Saturnia Farms in Southwest Ranches, FL.

Special emphasis will be placed on working with clients under stress and in crisis.

Authentic equine-assisted work honors and integrates natural horse and herd behavior as a model for human mental and emotional health using the equine-assisted philosophies.

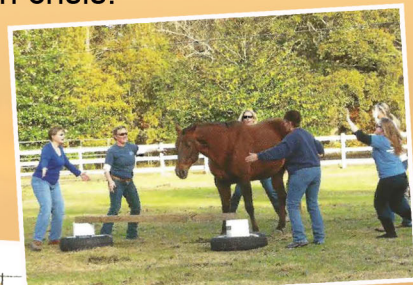

Seminar participants will earn certification in Equine Assisted psychotherapy (EAP) and Equine-Assisted Learning (EAL). The seminar fee of $1075 (discounts available for groups and early registrants) includes all materials, refreshments and lunches, and a one-year membership to the O.K. Corral Series.

No Horse Experience Required.
